

"The curriculum is very exciting and helps self-advocates teach sexuality to others."

Sexuality Education for Adults with Developmental Disabilities

This one of a kind curriculum is designed for self-advocates and staff to teach a sexuality education series together as a team.

It includes three parts:

1st
in the country

MANUAL

The manual provides tips on how to establish a sexuality education group and how to be an effective, engaging sexuality educator. It also outlines common challenges when teaching this topic and offers tactics to overcome them.

CURRICULUM

The 350-page cognitively accessible curriculum includes 20 lessons with scripts, handouts, detailed pictures, and teaching tools — everything you need to get started.

PRE/POST TEST PACKET

The pre/post test packet includes a pre/post test plus instructions on how to give the test to the participants in your group.
